Mr Bigelow

Dear Sir

Will you be Kind enough to give me the name of the Mrs Chamney who was alluded to in the last conversation I had with you? I have ^{heretofore} refrained, on account of certain interests which I would not expose in any degree, for more personal matters, from making any mention of that mistake. But the right time is now come and if you will

oblige me by repeating the name you then gave me but which I have forgotten I shall feel thankful

I trust I need not assure you that neither your own nor Mrs Bigelow's name will in any way be connected with my proceedings
in this affair

Yours truly
E W Hambleton

Mr J. Bigelow
