Champs.

Dear Mr. Bigelow; - 9

believe I'm losing what I am pleased to call my mind. I did not give M. Louis Blanc
my address last night and I don't know his! Will you angelically send
the enclosed note
to him?

I'd give a good deal
to see Gambetta and I'd dance for joy
if I could interview
him. Is it possible?
I had a most interesting evening thanks
to you and am very glad to have met
Mr. Tilden to whom I address a note
which I want you
to read first and not present unless you approve. I'm at my wits' end to raise money for a woman in distress.

Yours sincerely,

Kate Field.
