New York, Nov: 12.th 1876

My dear Mr. Bigelow.

After an absence of about a week, Mrs. Lott & myself have just returned from a visit to Virginia. & My son reads my notice that we are & expect the pleasure of hearing an address from you on the evening of Thursday: will you take a family dinner with us on that day? We shall be very happy to see you, and will send our carriage to take you up at any place you may appoint within the four-days of New York City.

I have expected to get amongst King they got out of Virginia, and come back with but a few old added to my former stock.
I hope, nevertheless, to have eyes and ears for the coming season.

Very truly & cordially
Yours,
A. S. Law
