

Malden Apr. 25/96

Dear Mr Bigelow

I saw Mr J. Humm

this morning and said to him he could have the ball ground lot for $25.00. Cash for the season of 96, and said he would let me know Monday or Tuesday. The lot over the way from the barn. I have been told contains the finest Pottery Clay, and there has been two men looking at it, I told them the price was I thought ~~was~~ $2000, and if they wanted to purchase it I would write you &c, said they understood the price was $1400, would see me a gain, if there is Pottery Clay &c, on the lot and so good I think they would pay 2000
- for it as quick as $1400, if they want it's James Maxwells House & Grow-nds over the way from the old Home-
-estead.

2,

is for sale and the price is $7000.
Now if that place is worth $7000 the old Homestead is worth $8000, the old Isham place was sold yesterday about 20 acres, for $1800, to a Mr Feiro Feiro, a very cheap property so they say here.

I was up to Catskill on Friday and Catskill boat wants $12.00, so West Shore R.R. do you suppose the old horse would stand driving up, - say take two days for it or I shall have to bring them by Saugert's boat.

I understood you to say the child was about 5 yrs old. in the inscription you give his age about 6 m's.

Thus - Born March 13, 1893,

Died Sept. 28, 1893.

If this is correct let me know.

Yours truly

A. G. Stanton
